2. JITSUGI

- A jitsugi examination will be undertaken on a group basis. Each group will usually comprise four candidates (A, B, C and D).
- The first group wait on designated seats facing the examination court. The seat direction is directly opposite to the examiners table. Next groups are standing by behind in a designated waiting area.
- Candidates A and B move to the designated standing position outside the court and wait for instructions.
- The standing candidates enter the court from the side (Figure 1). Each candidate performs jitsugi twice.
- It is not necessary to bow to the examiners.
- When Candidates A and B are about to conduct a sonkyo after finishing jitsugi, Candidate C proceeds to Candidate A's standing position on the examiners' side outside the court (Figure 2). Candidate C enters the court and approaches the standing bow position as Candidate A moves back to the position (Figure 3). Candidates A and C bow to Candidate B simultaneously. Candidates B and C then approach the kaishisen as Candidate A exits the court (Figure 4). Subsequent candidates follow this process.
- All candidates remain in the designated waiting area.
